

Master Plan and Economic Development Plan Village of Essex Junction, Vermont

Woodburn & Company assisted Essex Junction, Vermont and RKG Associates, Inc. with developing potential visions for the future of the village's business district. Working with the village trustees and local business owners, the consultant team produced a number of development options for several key parcels. The resulting report and recommendations provided the basis for stabilization of the village's long term economic health and private investment in underutilized parcels.

Qualifications and Typical

Municipal
Projects